

Grading Criteria for Group 'Ism' Presentations

Worth: Possible 40 Points

Note: Although class members are completing this assignment as a group, each person receives an individual grade. Each individual will submit an evaluation of the group's work and 'productivity'. The 'scores' by group members about one another can affect an individual's grade.

PTS	90 – 100 % (36-40 pts)	80 – 89% (32 – 35 pts)	70 -79% (28 – 31 pts)	60 – 69% (24 – 27 pts)	59% or less (23 points or less)
Group Assessment	Group presentation was thorough, understandable, and helped to explain main points of this 'ism'; Group submitted the Description of Group Work, and it was thorough and explained each member's role.	Group presentation was good, but needed a bit more information covered; Group Description submitted, but not complete, or not thorough enough.	Group presentation was satisfactory, but was lacking in covering important information from the readings, and/or not easily understandable (didn't 'flow' well); Group Description submitted, but not completed (missing members; material not noted as covered)	Group presentation was unsatisfactory; unclear, too brief, didn't cover readings well. Group Description not submitted, or very incomplete (or late)	Group presentation was not satisfactory; incomplete, not submitted on time and didn't cover the readings assigned. Group Description not submitted at all.
Indiv Assessment	Completed Individual Evaluation of Group's work, with all members 'graded'; Individual contributed equally to group work	Completed Individual Evaluation of Group's work, with all member's graded; Individual's work was good, but not as much as other members of the group	Completed individual Evaluation of Group's work, with member's all graded; Individual's contribution to the group work was apparent, but not well done; not full contribution	Individual Evaluation not submitted, or submitted late, or missing some group member's scores; Individual's contribution to the group was unsatisfactory/ incomplete; did not do what described in Group Work	Individual Evaluation not submitted, or submitted late, or missing some group member's scores; Individual's contribution to the group was very unsatisfactory/ incomplete; did not do what described in Group Work